 - Welcome & welcome back to all Pleasant View families. There are 678 students enrolled as of 8/20/18. 3rd grade & 6th grade have a few spots. Class size increase in kindergarten has opened a few kindergarten spots. For 6th grade we have 5 sections and anticipated many extra spots but at this time only 4 spots are open. 3 sections of 5th grade with 25 students each.
 - Staff changes: In 1st grade we have teaching changes. Mrs. Kies is not returning. Beth Runkle transferred here from Bridgeview. Radosevich is not returning. Natalie Hentze transferred here from Hopewell 3rd grade with prior 1st grade experience for 5 years in California. Mearthy is not returning. Angela Spartz will join 5th grade. Special education, 4-6 ID transferred to Hopewell. Megan Wachendorf was hired from East Moline with experience in the position.
 - Building changes: 1st grade hallway bathroom was completely demolished and fully rebuilt. The kitchen has also been upgraded, including windows. The space will be much more efficient for food service. Trash collection and disposal has also been reconfigured. There will be 2 helping committees to start the dialogue and planning for classroom remodeling of the 4-6th wing and the main primary hallway. Tomorrow is Back to School Night, Meet & Greet. 5:30-6:15 in the classrooms. Help videos for parking & drop off are available. If you have procedural ideas to help with traffic flow and safety, please share those ideas with Mr. Cotton. Mrs. Cindy Blake is the new secretary. Mrs. Hodgkin will retire in December. Mrs. Williams is on family leave for the 1st semester and will return in January.
